August 2 1970

31 July 1970

Loud street noises. No conversation at beginning of reel. Mr. and Mrs. KALININ exchange a few comments.

2 August 1970

- A. KALINIH
- B. KALININA

no - it's BAKULIN

C. Valya (Valentin - lnu, possibly SOKOLOV)

D. Valya's wife

((Pootsteps, fragments of conversation at first.))

B. and D. discuss the cost of mattresses in various stores and where it is best to buy a mattress. B. says, "My friend Klava ((lnu)) bought one ((a mattress)) in Hew York, but since they were at the UH, all their furniture was bought at their own expense; the transfer/moving of their furniture ((probably back home)) was free. That mattress is just lying unused at the dacha. She doesn't need it. They don't live at the dacha. They're in Yugoslavia now. Her mother and father don't live at the dacha and it will probably be rented out. If I give Elava $50 for it, she'll be glad to give it to me." A, comments, however, that it makes no sense buying the mattress from Klava because it is old already, the springs have rusted, etc. Furthermore, sending the mattress ((new)) back home won't be expensive - "the distance is small, and then by ship to Leningrad. He feels it's better to buy it here and send it. D. suggests "writing to the diplomatic mail," but C. says, "We don't have direct mail; we have to write through MID."

D. then talks about an employee ((unidentified)) who, in answer to Lena's ((lnu)) query how she should correspond with Vera ((lnu)) had "said in such a presumptuous tone — 'You can stand being without correspondence for a year.'* D. feels the same man had been upset because he had not been appointed an official/separation (nachal'nik), but had said later, "What am I upset for? If they don't want me, so what!" In connection with this B. says, "There's some sort of arrogance here; it's necessary to stay as far as possible from it."

c. and D. ask that A. and B. ((presumably)) write a letter to some acquaintances ((unidentified, probably in the Soviet Union)) and find out "whether we can depend on them and if we are going to stop for a day, how much this will cost approximately, and where best is it to stay." D. adds, "I don't think it's necessary to mention the mattress. When we arrive there, we'll make arrangements about it. If it's no, then no. I'll manage very well. I have two very good beds." ((Apparently C. and D. are departing soon.))

D. continues that her friend Shura (Aleksandra - lnu) wrote her that she is frequently ill and it's difficult for her with only one mattress. However, D. has room to sleep three, a divan and two beds.

If someone visits, "Valya ((her husband)) and I sleep in one bed, but if I'm sick, I sleep on the divan, while Vovka ((her son, probably)) and Valya sleep on the beds. It's possible to maneuver somehow. If we had one bed and someone came to visit, it would be very difficult."

C. suddenly asks if they know a "hooligan" song, and at the request of the women he sings it. All laugh, after which D. tells a dirty joke. Again all laugh. After this they criticise modern youth. C. comments, "Education has a great influence on people." D. says, "You know, when I worked in (? our ?) department/administration there was a very pleasant engineer there. He was 45 years old. His daughter finished the Medical Institute. She went to work and then all the patients began to complain to the chief physician about her rudeness. She started to be terribly rude at home. Then it began, - she started cursing and hitting. They examined her and she had something wrong with (1-26) and they put her in the insane asylum. Then periodically she was calm, was at home, and then suddenly she again became violently coarse. She was 24 years old but their other daughter was 6 years old, can you imagine? They were afraid she would beat the little girl to death. If she was home alone, she would almost beat her to death. Can you imagine what a tragedy this is? They gave her all kinds of medicines. We had a private/exclusive polyclinic; there were many high officials (svetil) there. Nothing helped her. They said ((it was caused by)), 'Over strain.' A thinks that "people have become weaker" now. But B. eaye,

B. Vovochka, I think it's simply because there's more information now.

- A. You yourself remember how much information we received at (1G) and none of us went insane during the entire five years. At the University you've got to consider it this way, if five persons ((?go nuts?)) during a session, that's a small number.
- B. ((insists)) There are very many ((going insane)). I have a friend ((female)) who is a psychiatrist. She told me that there are many (?who are ill -- mentally?), very many. Sometimes she doesn't know (?how to handle all her work?).
- A. ((jokingly)) Perhaps information is affecting me now and (20) in a hospital? I haven't gone insane up to now, but perhaps it doesn't depend upon the amount of information, but on the type of information. ((All laugh.))
- D. Mc. Volodya ((A.)), it was simpler previously. If you keep looking at such things ((possibly referring to TV)), you'll have nightmares.
- B. I only watch 'Lassie.' You know, it's a dog. I like it. I always try to watch it and I'm always affected by it.
- A. You know, I think we're especially affected by it because we know the particulars. That dog isn't specially trained; it belongs to a family. And the mother of the boy is a housewife. They just announced that during ((school)) examinations, the boy will not be photographed. There's going to be a histus in the ((TV)) programs.
- B. Vovochka, are you going by car? You're not leaving soon, are you?

  Don't forget (? the box ?). I've already packed the box.
- D. Do you have boxes?
- B. I do. Valerka ((lnu)) left them for us. Our carpenter made them.
- A. I've been looked at those boxes. I think that I stay here for four years, we won't be able to pack our baggage according to the box sizes, but will have to do the opposite ((get boxes to fit the baggage dimensions.))
- B. You know, we don't have so much junk. We bought things, thinking... ((loud noise covers remainder of sentence)).
- A. I'm telling you, it makes sense to overpay for packing because then everything will be in order.
- B. We have (2-3G) $750.
- A. But our ambassador (3-46), more expensive; that's understandable.

But I'm paying 560 ((possibly dollars)) - only half.

- B. (2-3G), $3,000. The only thing is that we have to pay for an apartment there yet.
- A. We had a car, absolutely at our own expense.
- D. Tell me, why (2G)?
- B. They pay themselves now ((unspecified for what)). A woman went by plane; she paid.
- A. A year hasn't passed yet. They pay from September, or something like that. I think they started later, almost since January.
- B. There you are; (1G) arrived; (? he left ?) his car there for some reason.
- D. We don't have a car. Do you have a car?
- . on .
- D. But he ((unidentified)) has one.
- B. There are two cars here for (2-36). Oleg's ((1mu)) car (1-26). But I don't understand why it's that way. Volodya spoiled him scandalously. He's young and he drives a car, but your older and must...
- A. His wife can't walk.
- B. Too bad, let her move her ass.
- D. (3-46), there was one car, one for two people. (3-46) That

  (16) is horrible/terrible. Valerka's ((lnu))/was in the hospital, children

  Valerka's/were with me. I was working. Vovkm ((lnu)) was taking care of them. Two little girls lived with me. So he ((umidentified) called him ((Valerka)) and said, "Valera, put the car in for washing and I'll pick it up. I have to have it clean." He ((Valerka)) came to Valya ((D.'s husband)) and said, 'He didn't even ask how my wife is.' Valera had spent the night next to his wife Lyubka who had just been operated on. They cut out her glands under a general anesthetic; she was nauseous, but he said, "put the car in for washing; I need it," or, "wash the car's In such a tone of voice.

- A. Such impudence!
- D. Yes. In general, his manner shows ((what he is)). He wasn't even interested in asking how his ((Valera's)) wife is, where the children are. That's unimportant to him. But wash his car for him, he needs it clean. I'll tell you, with such an

- impudent person you can only be impudent because they ((such people)) don't understand.
- A. You see, in principle, he was a favorite/pet (lyubimchik); apparently he'll be that way now.
- D. But why do you think that he'll be that way now?
- A. Because he is also a khokhol ((derogatory term for Ukrainian)), (1-2G). ((Pause))
- D. Oleg three weeks ago or more (2G); he also knows how to be sick.
- B. Oleg knows how and she knows how.

  ((They are possibly talking about Oleg HECHIPORENKO or Oleg SHEVCHENKO, since both are Ukrainians, or as A. calls Oleg, "khokhol."))
- D. She was so (3-4G), turned about, and said nasty things about me.

  But outwardly she will chat and give a good impression. I recall when she came to the Embassy (3-4G).

- B. What is she, (20)?
- D. No, she was there (1-2G). In general, they scolded ((or, cursed)) and insulted her, and they scolded ((or, cursed)) Oleg... but Oleg is tactless in general.
- A. But he knows how to pretend to be tactful and courtsous.
- B. He once said some sort of thing you and I were sitting on the couch. I felt so (?awkward/uncomfortable?) "I'm probably 10 years older ((than you)). What right do you have to say such things." ((B. said to the man, probably the same Oleg.)) He said, "I was joking." I don't recall the joke, but it was so stupid, with some sort of vileness, that the joke was absolutely impossible.
- D. (?I liked?) it very much yesterday when Pavel ((lnu)) was joking.
- A. Pavel also knows how to joke.
- D. They/went swimming. Tamara said, "I don't feel well," and because of that she couldn't go swimming, that swithout a doubt. He started pestering, "Girls, go swimming." We were bothered. Voledya didn't say a word, (?but he?) said, "Let's go swimming or else we won't feed you at lunch time. And Pavel kept insisting. But Tamara said, "Why are you pestering us. Maybe we can't go swimming." And Pavel said, "Oh! You're not at that age!" Can you imagine? She stared at him and didn't say a word.

- C. And how did you understand it when he tore her bathing suit?

  He came up and said, "VANOVSKIY, take away your wife's bathing suit because all her measurements can be seen." When she started telling him off!!!
- D. She really told him off. She's vicious; she gets wound up momentarily. Listen, I'll tell you this fact: women remain women. (?Once?) she got a pitcher and little napkins... Klava pulls out the pitcher with the napkins and says in front of everyone: "What do you do with this?" She answered, "I wash myself!" Kostya said, "You fool! Put it where it belongs!" Listen, strangers ((not identified)) were sitting there, can you imagine? And yesterday, well, all right, I'm older. Katya is older, but Tamara is younger than I.
- B. Tamara is probably 44. But, in general, that's not a subject for conversation with men.
- D. Any way, it's not that time yet when women have change of life. I don't even know how old Eatya is. He was (? 50 years old ?). ((They are possibly talking about Pavel KOVALEV, the chauffeur, and his wife Yekaterina.)) No, you listen. He has the nerve to ask, "Who wants to see him ((lnu))?" ((Her comment to his question)) "What are you? Are you the Secretary or the Pirst Department, or something? What business is it of yours who is going to ask for whom at the Embassy?"
- A. Whom?
- D. Well, when we arrived, he said, "Who wants to see him?" I said, "An acquaintance."
- A. Guess who! ((they laugh))
- D. No, I can't take him in such large doses! We had supper together the day before yesterday when we brought the boss/bosses. And Katya spilled wins on (?KUZ'MIN?). How he snapped at her!
- 0. What happened there!
- D. How he did snap at her. Tamara said, "Such things aren"t noticed usually." First he stared at her. That's his way, to stare first.
- A. He first has to let it sink in. Then he needs contact.
- D. I look Katya was putting a whiskey glass on the table. (?The whiskey glass was empty?), and then he really let loose.
- B. Oh! So you were there?

- D. Well, that was the day before yesterday.
- B. Well, you should have said something about it. That's the version /episode we were talking about.
- A. I'm sorry for Katya. Those things frequently affect her quicker. She's simply affected more quickly by them.
- B. Ida ((DEMINA)) was saying, "I came upset at something at Sasha ((DEMIN)), it was something he did, or had not answered properly, and Katya said, "You see how spoiled you are, while all of my life I only see such things." When Ida started working, he chewed out Katya together with (1G), saying, "Go work. How is it that Ida went to work and you're sitting at home? The wife of an official went to work, but you sit at home?" He kept picking on her until the wife of (?KRASNOVSKIY?) there was such a man here until (?KRASNOVSKIY's?) wife came and told Ira about this and said, "Ira, speak with Semonovich ((lnu)) so that he will call Pavel in and speak with him." And Katya said, "Where am I going to work? I'm no good any more as a doctor's assistant (fel'dsher), and to go as a cleaning woman itsdifficult/hard for me now."
- D. Listen, of course. Tamara tells me that she is at the age when it's time for her to stop working as a cleaning woman. She has to guard her health. Her heart constantly (Thurts?) her.
- B. No, really? Konstantin Nikandrovich ((BOGATYREV)) asked, so she even began working in a second place.
- D. Yes? And how about that one ((woman)) who knows everything?

  Is she working already?
- A. I don't know. Those problems don't bother me at all.
- B. (3-4G).
- A. What's it to her. She can type on all typewriters, and with touch typing. She can also work as a bookkeeper. She can do anything you want.
- B. Listen, and how is (?SHCHUCHKIN'87) wife?
- C. (?SHCHUCHKIN?) arrived and the first thing he did was to run to me to work. He didn't discuss anything with (?Vladya?), but ran to me asked where he could get a job for his wife. And that's with two children. They had five children.
- B. Maybe they feel the wife should work so there wouldn't be more chiliren?

C. Further, he ran to the office, saying, "My wife knows English, Spanish; she knows the typewriter." He ran around everywhere.

And finally he got her in. And he's always around the Ambassador, and everything, and he finally got her a job. The children hang around in the Embassy and she works. Do you understand?

(?And that's?) the First Secretary! ((Pause)) Vovochka, shall we go ((probably by car))? I'm dragging you away from your wife.

((B. and D. chat about cooking various dishes for a while.)) a snag, however, in the wake of the A.MIDRIFF defection, and possibly also due to the operation against AESEASICK. In most cases, our MHHARSH friends have suddenly become inaccessible. There were three functions of the Consular Corps, including the annual election of officers, within about two weeks of AEMIDRIFF's defection and subsequent press conference (which took some cracks at the members of the MHHARSH consular section, indicating that they spent 90 percent of their time doing intelligence work and very little time issuing visas). The MHHARSH representation in the Consular Corps Association had always been a strong one, and one of their people was normally an officer (formerly AEDIGHARD, more recently 201-305870). However, none of them attended any of these functions, including the elections. 201-305870, a consular officer, had an invitation to the home of Dexter E. ROSTEDT on 13 March. Not only did he not show up, ROSTEDT was never able to get him on the phone to confirm the invitation. A January volleyball match between the MHHARSH Embassy and LNPURE was supposed to have been followed by return engagements. 201-305870 was in charge of this, and he has suddenly lost interest in the follow-up. On the other hand, the MHHARSHers who belong to ALCOSAD have behaved more normally, AEJALISCO, the MHHARSH representative on the AMCOSAD board of directors, took part in an excursion to Baja California 28 February (no LAPURE officers went) and was present with a half-dozen of his colleagues at the AMCOSAD annual election lunch on 19 March. (At the 19 March affair, AEJALISCO was uncharacteristically nervous, but would not say what was bothering him. It will be noted that the AESEASICK operation reached its denouement the night before.)

- 3. In support of the evidence above that the MHHARSHers have gone into their shell, at least to some extent, as a result of AEMIDRIFF's defection, LIBACON-1 has reported that a TDY technician with whom he had been working as a translator, told him that it was now much more difficult to get away to go out on the town with LIBACON-1. When asked why, he said it was due to AEMIDRIFF, "who really s--- on us, even we [TDYers] are being watched." In general, the line given out by MHHARSHers asked about AEMIDRIFF's defection sticks to the story that she was just a dumb secretary who fell in love with a Mexican. She not only knows nothing, she will probably be very sorry she ever had anything to do with that Latin Lover.
- 4. It is probable that the MHHARSHers will slowly come out of their shells and will begin to circulate once more. If so, the Station's policy of supplementing the SB operational program with personal contacts will continue, and, as stated, will concentrate on obtaining this type of contact with the selected targets. In this way, our assessment and knowledge of the target can be supplemented by a case officer's expert assessment. Headquarters will be kept advised of developments.
- 5. This dispatch was in preparation when Reference B arrived. The assessments of AEJALISCO and 201-305870, requested in Reference B, are included in the attachment. PCQs have been filled out in certain instances, and a batch on AEJALISCO will be forwarded shortly. The Spanish-language PCQ's-promised in Reference B will be most welcome.

LABSIFICATION

SUBJECT: Vincent P. RIZZUTO's Soviet Contacts

Largely through the medium of AMCOSAD, RIZZUTO has met a number of Soviets. With many it is little more than a nodding acquaintance, but with some it is a little deeper than that. The latter are discussed below. It should be pointed out that each of these Soviets is very likely aware of RIZZUTO'S RVROCK affiliation.

A. Valentin V. BAKULIN (201-261813) - RIZZUTO has known him for over two years. BAKULIN is a smooth-talking, smooth-appearing diplomat. He speaks excellent Spanish, but has never been known to talk about anything more controversial than the weather, the landscape, or his family. His wife is a pleasant woman, but she rarely accompanies him on excursions. He has a teen-aged son of whom he is very proud. The son visited him in the summer of 1969, and the son exhibited a pretty good working knowledge of English, which he had been studying in school in Moscow. BAKULIN appears to be a bit of a hypochondriac. He complains often of stomach ailments, and for this reason rarely takes a drink (at least in public). In spite of his good Spanish and his very presentable appearance, he does not seem to mix much with non-Soviets. In common with most of his colleagues (notably excepting Boris A. CHMYKHOV and Boris A. KAZANTSEV), BAKULIN seems to prefer the company of his own people, and does not go out of his way to talk to others. When he is approached, he is very asiable. He never talks about his job (he is one of the First Secretarics but does not appear to have any overt job), but did say once that he and CHMYKHOV could not go on home leave at the same time because one had to cover for the other. AMCOSAD functions appear to provide the only occasion for BAKULIN to appear in public. When RIZZUTO has been to functions at the Soviet Embassy, BAKULIN has always been the proper host -- polite and hospitable. The real BAKULIN never shows through. Since he is a neighbor (same floor of same apartment building) as well as frequent companion of CHMYKHOV, he is undoubtedly aware of the relationship between RIZZUTO and CHMYKHOV, and he stays out of it, probably on purpose.

B. Turiy CHERNYSH (201-825743) - RIZZUTO has met CHERNYSH only three times, the firs two meetings being well over a year apart. However, all meetings resulted in relatively lengthy conversations. CHERNYSH made no bones about getting RIZZUTO's name correctly (most Soviets do not seem to bother and usually act as if they do not remember the name). He will talk, intelligently, about almost any topic, controversial or not. He is very intense, as if he is working hard to remember everything that was said, and every quirk

MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILE

SUBJECT: Valentin Vasilyevich RAKULIN (P-6059)

On 26 June 1969, LILYRIC reported seeing BAKULIN enter the Soviet Embassy in the company of a young man whom LILYRIC identified as BAKULIN's son. The BAKULINs have one son, Viadimir born 30 Juneary 1954 who is presently studying in the USSR. Vladimir was in Mexico City visiting his parents in the summer of 1968 for summer vacations. There is no indication that BAKULINs son is again in Mexico visiting. Nonetheless, LILYRIC reported this young man as BAKULIN's son.

CRAID 17 RECORD (057) 735, 12-187, 3 Lay 1969

SUBJECT: M.COSAD trip to Chihuahua and Pinasloa, 25-27 April 69

- among the CO AMCOSAD members who flew to Chihuahua on 25 April and thence as in the attached itinerary. Participation was heavily Western European, with relatively few Latin Americans and surprisingly only three Soviets (all with wives): CHMYKHOV, PHOVOROV, and BAKULIK. Other Bloc types were LUKASZ (poland) and DOSAI (Hungary), both with wives. No Cubansk. The tripm was very interesting, and a resounding success.
- 2. Is usual, my conversations with the Soviets didn't amount Hone of the wives had anything to say, and they stuck to eachother like glue. PRO VOROV (P-2183) speaks only when spoken to and even then he says nothing. I don't know why they send him on these things. BAKULIN (P-6059) is a real somooth article. He mixes well, speaks excellent Spanish, but never discusses anything controversial -- the weather, the scenery, etc.. Ir CHU of China told me that Mrs. BAKULID is a very intelligent and well-read woman. Ly buddy CHAYKHOV/was of course wall over the lot. he is popular and the charming but nobody has the faintest idea what he is talking about because he speaks such awaul Spanish. He wasn't up to his usual tirkes tricks of pouring drinks for everybody. The three Sovs actually were quiet and well-behaved this time, probably because they were greatly outnumbered and all had their wives along. Except when CHATERY was going around making points, they stuck pretty nuch together.
- but Mr. CHU was his target for that evening. The CHMYKHOVs and CHUs shared a table for dinner, and Mr CHU reported the conversation to me id great detail the following morning on the train. The main topic of the conversation wad the Chinese-Soviet border dispute, and Cau took great delight in telling CHIYKHOV that the Poviets would have been better off if they had profit ed CHIALG to stay in pure Profit in Ghina. CHRYKHOV's point seemed to be that the dispute would eventually be settled. "e is a great one for puring oil on troubled vaters, no matter where they are. Mr. Chu said that CHAIKHOV mr. now only seeks him out on occasions like this, where xxxxx some sort of diplomatic function throws them together. He never makes a lunch date. Chu believes that this is in line with Soviet policy, which is to talk to Taiwan xxxxx government representatives without being xxxxixiconspictious about it. (CHAIKHOV sat rext to Bill MILLS at the Foreign Minister's lunch for the ALCOSAD Junta Directiva on 23 April and spent most of the time talking about the same topic—or at least limins thanks that was that he was talking about.)

I didn't see much of CHEYREDV on the train ride on Saturday (he was in the other car, and I didn't care to risk life and himb to pass from one car to the other). At one sight-seeing stop I took a picture for him (with his camera) of him pretending to rush his wife into the Barranca de Cobre. I kept telling them to back up, but they didn't go far enough. Dinner was rather late that night (2330 hours to the exact) didn't show up. CHAYAHOV claimed that she was tired and not hungry, but I wonder if he just told her to stay in her room. I was his target for the evening. He sat rext to me (we were at long tables) and as he was at the end I was his only conversation partner. All I got out of it was a strained left ear. The conversation rarely got into serious topics (once he said we were making good propaganda in Czrchoslovakia, to which I replied that progeganda was hardly necessary since the facts speak for themselves. He simply shrugged atthis and cha ged the subject.) He also, apropos of nothing that I can remember, started talking of X SORGE and spies. I went along with the gag and told him he'd better leave his camera belind when he we went to Topolobanno or he'd be accused of spying on the port facilities. This was gold for a few chuckles. He has brought up this topic before, and I can only assume it's his way of te ling me that he and I each business. He also told in that hold been in H Hew York once several years ago on a courier trip to the Soviet UN mission. I didn't really understand the point of his story. We also claims to be studying English several hours a week with Mrs. KUPLIAKOV.

I didn't a test his English, which can only be worse than his Aspenish if that spossible. He will be going on home leave this summer and will return for at least ant her year. CHLYKHOV had no real explanation for the fact that no many Soviet regulars (free loaders) were missing from this trip. He said that KAZANTSEV was in Guadalajera on business, and that the others, like KUPLIAKOV, just couldn't gefor away (LTEVOY indicates that KOLCHIK OV and PRCHHODKO canceled out at the last minute, reason not stated).

Comment of the State Victor of State American

- 5. IDSAI (P-12487), a very pleasant person, as is his wife, is about to leave PCS. His wife is eleaving in a month, and he will follow a month after that. They both claim to be looking forward to the teturn, although a more completely Westernized pair of Hungarians I have never seen. I can only assme they expect another tour abroad eventually.
- 6. LEKASZ (P-12468) demonstrated why Polack jokes are so widely told and believed. The property plane was not when we got on it, and he promptly to k off coat, tie, and sairt, and sat there in his undershirt.

  I'M sure if he'd had a beer can he would have remarked it with one hand and thrown it out the window while flying at 13,000 feet.
- 7. LARRE, the German, slowed why Germans are still beloved throughout the world. Comehow they were not called by the hotel on Sunday morning. They woke up on their own in rlenty of time, but in typical Kraut fashion sat in their room waiting for the call. By the tile they figured the call might not come, the bus was ready to deave, so they got no breakfast. They got on the bus, whent me to Topolobampo and rubber-necked with the rest of us, an then announced that they were going to stay there to have breakfast. Someone offered to different to a rendezvous point to meet the bus, but even with that we had to wait a good half hour. They got on the by pleasantly burping and picking their teeth and sat down without a word of apology. The only thing missing from this picture was a pur e made out of human skin for Mrs. MARES. dshared a taxi from the airport Surday evening with the two Frenc, couples who were along, who were anxious to get back and chekê the election results. They were pulling for DeGaulle. I wonder how much lenger they'll be here.

CONTACT REPORT

SUBJ ECT

BESABER (P-8777)

DATE OF MEETING

27 February 1969

1. In response to a phone call from Subject, I met him from 1515 to 1545 at his hotel.

- 2. Subject told me that he's on the verge of bankruptcy and that this time He's not kidding. He has been unable to pay his employees their full wages and, recently, the newspapers have begun attacking him as a foreigner, exploiter of workers, etc. He seemed exceptionally cheery in spite of the gloomy prospects and I indicated that I feel sure He'll figure a way out of his problems. His one possibility is to get the money he needs from "Baby" but the price is too high: him. "Baby" would like Subject to divorce his wife which he refuses to do.
- 3. The main thing on Subject's mind was that he had a visit from Valentin BAKULIN (P- 6059) on Saturday, 22 February, at the factory. BAKULIN brought Subject a bottle of vodka and he bought about $600 (pesos) worth of Subject's products to send back to the USSR. He apparently sent some previously and he said they went over so well that he wanted more. BAKULIN came with his wife and with another Soviet couple but Subject didn't know their names. BAKULIN said he's going to send Subject some little wooden dolls. BAKULIN brought regated from CHMYKOV and from 712 LOGINOV/ BAKULIN didn't have a card to leave with Subject so he wrote his name and address on a scrap of paper for Subject which Subject would like to have returned.

, and it

Xeroxed for BAKULIN's and Subject's file.

Wlodzimierz STRZYZEWZKI, the mysterious Polish photographer who had turned up unexpectedly at Subject's house (see Contact report of 22 Oct 1966). Enclosed were a couple of photos he'd taken of Subject and his family. Subject couldn't understand why the quality is so bad considering that STR was passing himself off as a professional photog and was loaded with equipment. Also interesting is the fact that the letter arrived very soon after the visit of Ambassador MAJCHRZAK-(P-277) during which Subject had groused about never having received a letter or the photos the STR had promised. Subject is sure that MAJ must have sent a telegram to Poland telling STR to get on the stick.

Timothy M. ARCHBOLD

P.S. I told Subject to direct his attention toward BEPAN (P-6601) as soon as possible. I suggested that he might arrange to be introduced through MAJ on the pretext Subject had mentioned once before, i.e., Subject's interest in seeing some of Subject's grandfather'w music presented in Mexico. He thought this sounded pretty reasonable in view of the rapport he now has with MAJ while having no other natural entree to BEPAN.

BAKULIN - P- 6059

Valentin Vasilyevich BAKULIN, 2nd Secretary, has a pleasant and cultured voice. He seems to be quite happy with his wife, Vera Ivanovna, who has many women friends with whom she does a lot of window shopping. Danulis is not known foe any outstanding vices and is well liked by others. His Spanish is quite good.
